Cleveland, Oct. 12.—The Cleveland Indians, American League champions, annexed another title today by winning the fourth straight game and the deciding one of the world series, 3 to 0.

Incidentally it was the third win for the veteran, Coveleski, who is credited with a victory every time he started in the series.

Cleveland won the first game of the series at Brooklyn last Tuesday, lost the next two at Brooklyn and won every one of the games on their home lot, which opened last Saturday.

Cleveland scored on two hits and an error in the fourth today and marked up another one in the fifth on two hits, the last one being a triple by Speaker. Two two-baggers netted one run in the seventh.

FIRST INNING.

Brooklyn—Olson popped to Gardner. Sheehan flied to Jamieson. Griffith safe at first when Coveleski dropped an easy chance. Wheat popped to Wambsganss. No runs, no hits, one error.

Cleveland—Jamieson out on a high bunt to Konetchy. Wambsganss flied to Wheat. Speaker popped to Sheehan. No runs, no hits, no errors.

SECOND INNING.

Brooklyn—Myers out, Sewell to W. Johnston; Konetchy out, Gardner to W. Johnston; Kilduff out, Sewell to W. Johnston. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Cleveland—Smith out, Kilduff to Konetchy. Gardner safe on first when Sheehan threw the ball past Konetchy. W. Johnston was walked. Sewell lined to Griffith and Gardner was held on second. O'Neill was out. Kilduff to Konetchy. No runs, no hits, one error.

THIRD INNING.

Brooklyn—Miller was fanned. Grimes drove a Texas Leaguer to left field. Olson was safe at first and Grimes at second when Sewell fumbled Olson's easy roller. Error for Sewell. Sheehan's batted ball struck Olson as he ran to second, and Olson was out. Wambsganss picked the ball up and threw it to third in order to head off Grimes, who slid in safely. Grimes, however, was ordered back to second by the umpires. Griffith flew to Smith. No runs, one hit, one error.

Cleveland—Coveleski fanned. Jamieson lined out to Grimes. Wambsganss beat out a slow roller in front of Grimes. Speaker was out. Kilduff to Konetchy. No runs, one hit, no errors.

FOURTH INNING.

Brooklyn—Wheat singled out to right field, but was caught at second while trying to stretch the single into a two base hit. Myers out. Gardner to W. Johnston. Konetchy flied to Jamieson. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Cleveland—Smith out, Konetchy unassisted. Gardner singled past Kilduff. W. Johnston singled to right, sending Gardner to third. Sewell flied to Wheat in short left. Both runners held their bags. O'.

RUBE MARQUARD FINED FOR TICKET SCALPING

Pitcher for Brooklyn Team Pleads Guilty to Charge and Pays Fine of $1 and Costs

SAYS IT WAS ALL A JOKE

(By United Press)

Cleveland, Ohio, Oct. 12.—"Rube" Marquard, star pitcher for the Brooklyn Dodgers, was found guilty of ticket scalping today and was fined $1 and costs. Marquard's attorney's did not appeal his case and the pitcher paid his fine and costs amounting to $3.80.

In imposing the fine Judge Silbert stated: "You act like a real rogue." Marquard was arrested in a hotel for offering to sell six world series tickets for $650. The pitcher told the judge that he offered the tickets as a joke and really purchased them for his brother.

Cleveland, Ohio, Oct. 12.—"It was all a frameup," declared Rube Marquard today when he was found guilty of ticket scalping. "Authorities do not believe that I was guilty, or they would have fined me more than a $1 and costs."

Manager Robinson did not think Marquard was guilty of any wrong doing.

The John Kelly restaurant was sold today to Mrs. A. Ayres of Connersville. She took possession at once and after renovating the place, will reopen it Saturday.

RETAIL COAL MEN CANCEL CONTRACTS

Act on The Ground That Prices Fixed by New Commission Are Confiscating

WILL NOT BUY INDIANA COAL

Operators Assert Mines Would Operate at Loss Under Prices Allowed Them

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 12.—Retail coal dealers are cancelling their contracts with the Indiana mine owners on the ground that the fuel prices fixed by the new coal and fuel commission are confiscating and that the margin of profit is insufficient.

According to an Indianapolis operator, this means the retailers are not going to buy Indiana coal. The operators assert the mines would operate at a loss under the prices fixed by the commission and that many idle mines would result if the prices were not changed.

Jesse Eschbach received a message from the Knox county coal association today promising the food and fuel commission twenty car loads of coal today and that amount tomorrow.

Another telegram was received from the Queen Coal Mining Company of Jasonville, promising the coal commission coal from some of their mines but declared that coal from other mines they owned could not be supplied.

The assertion that "Indiana coal producers have no intention of falling into the program" of the state special coal and food commission for fixing prices, on coal is made in a statement in which Phil H. Penna, of Terre Haute, secretary and treasurer of the Indiana Bituminous Coal Operators' Association, is quoted. Mr. Penna was in Indianapolis Monday evening, and the statement was made public then.

Jesse Eschbach, chairman of the commission, does not believe, however, that the statement represents the attitude of all the coal operators in Indiana and he accepts the challenge only in that light. He has received assurance from Carl J.

COLUMBUS DAY DID NOT PASS UNNOTICED

Four Hundredth Anniversary of Founding of America Celebrated Here in 1892

SERIES OF EXERCISES HELD

Columbus Day did not pass unnoticed in Rushville twenty-eight years ago, when the four hundredth anniversary of the discovery of America was appropriately observed in Rushville and in schools throughout the county. The observance in 1892, however, took place on October 21.

Files of the Republican, which was then a semi-weekly newspaper, describe the celebration in Rushville. On the morning of the day, school children of the city marched to the first ward building where appropriate services were held. The proclamation of the president was read by Will Jones and that of the governor by John Moore. The address was delivered by J. M. Stevens, who was commander of Joel Wolfe post of the G. A. R. The colors were hoisted while 800 school children sang patriotic songs. The procession then moved to the third ward building where an address was delivered by Dr. J. H. Ford.

In the afternoon appropriate exercises were held at the old Rushville academy and in the evening at Melodeon hall. The paper describes the meeting by saying that the hall was packed with people and that the children's voices in the play were scarcely audible because of the confusion due to the large crowd. The opening address on that occasion was made by Ross Fargo.

2 CROWDS HEAR M'CRAY

Mays and Carthage Each Turn Out Big This Morning

A good sized delegation of Republicans left this morning in automobiles accompanying Warren T. McCray, candidate for governor, to Mays and Carthage, where he addressed large crowds this morning. Mr. McCray, who spoke here last night remained over until this morning, and about twelve automobiles went on the tour of the two towns in northern Rush county. The speaking at Mays was held about 9:15 and following a thirty minute speech, the party continued on to Carthage, where a large crowd was waiting on the public square. After Mr. McCray had concluded his Carthage address he left in a machine for other points, and the local delegation returned home.

FINDS JOHNSON MEN ARE ALL FOR HARDING

Zell C. Swain Primary Campaign Manager For California Senator, Visits in Rushville

HAS BEEN ALL OVER STATE

Zell C. Swain of Indianapolis, who was manager of the Johnson primary campaign in Indiana, was in Rushville last night for the republican meeting and reported to local republicans that the republicans who supported Senator Hiram Johnson in the primary for the nomination for president, were now so fully behind Senator Warren G. Harding.

"I have been going about the state for several weeks," said Mr. Swain, "and everywhere I find that the most ardent Johnson men in the primary campaign are for Harding, Watson and McCray. They have followed the lead of Senator Johnson and are supporting Senator Harding in his position on the league and other issues of the campaign."

Mr. Swain said that he had talked to a number of Johnson men in this county and had found conditions here similar to their counties in the state.

Senator Johnson ran fourth in the primary in this county, receiving 414 votes.

WILL ATTEND SECOND SYNOD OF U. P. CHURCH

R. A. Innis Will go as Delegate to Meeting Which Will Open at Springhill Tonight

OTHER MEMBERS TO ATTEND

The second synod of the United Presbyterian church will convene tonight at 7:30 at the Springhill church, near Clarksburg, when over 100 delegates from this part of Indiana and Ohio will assemble for the three day session. R. A. Innis will attend from this city as a delegate from the local church, and the Rev. J. T. Aikin, local pastor will also attend the sessions, as well as members of the congregation.

The meeting tonight will open with an address by the retiring moderator, Dr. J. Kelly Griffen, president of Knoxville college, Knoxville, Tenn., and a new moderator will be elected.

Tomorrow will be devoted to the usual routine of business that comes before the synod, together with the selection of the next meeting place. Since its organization, the synod has convened five times at the Springhill church, meeting there in 1860, 1874, 1886 and 1897. It met here about ten years ago, and more recently met in Milroy. The session's last year were in Morning Sun, Ohio.

Because of the nearness of Springhill, the local church will be well represented. Meals will be served in the basement of the church. A short business session will be held Thursday morning, which will end the session.

ENTHUSIASM RUNS HIGH AT MEETING

George Barnard Climaxes Republican Speaking Monday Night With Eloquent Address

FROM MOTHER'S VIEWPOINT

Mrs. Martha E. Abt Speaks Against The League of Nations—McCray Urges Budget System

More genuine enthusiasm was displayed at the republican meeting in the court room at the court house Monday night than has been exhibited at any local political gathering this campaign.

It remained for George Barnard of Newcastle, son of Congressman W. O. Barnard who once represented the sixth district in congress, to climax the other speeches of the evening with an eloquent appeal for Republican success at the polls November 2.

He was preceded by Mrs. Martha E. Abt of Chicago, who discussed the league of nations from a mother's viewpoint, and Warren T. McCray of Kentland, republican candidate for governor.

The court room was crowded and scores of people were turned away because they could not get within hearing distance of the speakers. Judge Will M. Sparks presided and introduced the speakers. On account of the meeting lasting until after ten o'clock, there was no time for other candidates present to speak, and an informal reception for them was held in the corridors. R. N. Elliott of Connersville, candidate for re-election to congress; Rowland N. Hill of Carthage, candidate for joint senator, and W. R. Jinnett, candidate for re-election to the state house of representatives, shook hands with their friends after the meeting.

"Do you want to go to the polls November 2 and by your vote crucify your boy and every mother's boy for generations to come by this damnable league of nations?" asked Mrs. Abt, addressing her appeal to the mothers in the audience, as she closed a severe criticism of the covenant.

Mrs. Abt was greeted with prolonged applause when she asserted that 50,000 democrats in Oklahoma had registered as republicans.

The speaker declared that she had been going from one end of the country to the other trying to find why any woman should be a democrat and she had never learned yet. She told about being questioned by a woman who said she knew nothing about the league of nations.

"I answered her," Mrs. Abt said, "that there were about 110,000,000 other people who knew nothing about it."

Mrs. Abt referred to another woman who asked her son, who is one of 18,000 American boys guarding the Rhine, was coming home. She had not seen him for three years.

"Just as soon after March 4, 1921, as Warren G. Harding is inaugurated," Mrs. Abt told her, "and can call the senate together and pass a resolution declaring that a state of peace exists between the United States and Germany."

The speaker declared that a recent assertion of Lloyd George was ample reason for the United States to stay out of the league. She pointed out that when asked why England did not declare war on Soviet Russia, the British premier replied that it was because America was the only nation with the money and men and that "they are not co-operating."

"But we would be co-operating," she asserted with some vehemence, "if we were in the league of nations."

Judge Sparks, introducing Mr. McCray, said that on one occasion when he was in the section of the state where the gubernatorial candidate lives, he heard nothing but expressions of high regard and esteem for Mr. McCray.

"Next to his own county," said the judge, "I am sure that he has no more friends any place than right here in Rush county."

Fletcher, of the Knox County Coal Operators' Association, that the Knox county organization would have twenty-five carloads of coal at the disposal of the commission today for emergency distribution.

Mr. Penna's statement says the commission has entered on a publicity campaign of amazing effrontery and palpable insincerity and falsehood. He says the program will ruin the coal business in Indiana and result in more disorder in coal distribution.

Mr. Eschbach asserts Mr. Penna represents only the operator who insists in his "pound of flesh" and who attempts to take all the profit the coal traffic will bear. He says that the commission will see that every operator, wholesaler and retailer obtains a fair return.

The Care of the Scalp

(By United States Health Service.)

HERE are a few very important things for you to know about your hair, and the proper way of caring for it:

First, and most important, is the fact that except for the root the hair is nothing but dead tissue.

It is the scalp and not the hair that must be treated.

"Gray hair" cannot be cured, that is, restored, except by dyes.

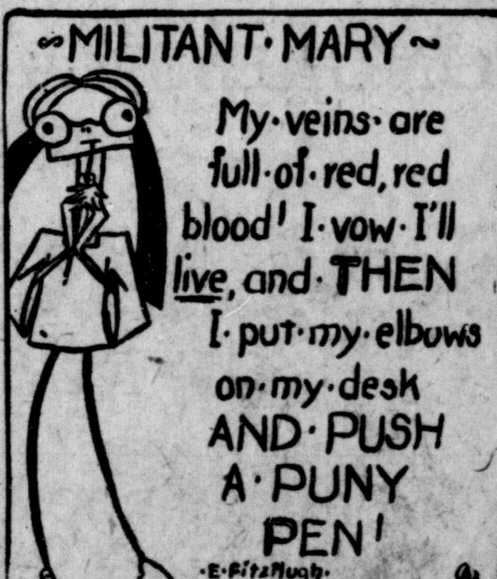

Baldness cannot be cured, except on rare occasions.

The scalp is just like the rest of the skin on the body, and should be kept as clean as the face or the hands. In order to do this the head should be washed at least once a week with a good tar or sulphur soap. This will not only help to keep the scalp free from dandruff, but will open the pores of the scalp and permit of the free flow of oil to make the hair glossy. It is folly to have the hair singed, as it is entirely useless. So-called "hair foods" cannot "nourish" the hair and should be wisely avoided.

If you want pretty hair, keep the scalp clean and healthy. Wash the head and hair clean and rinse out all soap. Then dry thoroughly with a hot towel. If the hair should become "dry" from too much washing, apply a mixture of grain alcohol and castor oil, about five teaspoonfuls of oil to the pint of alcohol. This will restore the gloss to the hair, and also act as an excellent antiseptic for dandruff.

When the hair persists in falling out and bald spots appear, the fault is not always with the scalp, but may be some remote underlying cause. Consult a physician instead of a barber, as the falling hair may be a symptom of some disease he could readily recognize and cure. Often when the hair is falling out it is being replaced by new hair.

Gray hair is caused by a loss of pigment, or coloring matter, and small air bubbles getting into the hair and giving it the white appearance. There is no way of curing this condition, although it may sometimes be prevented by keeping the scalp healthy and clean. This is not always possible, however, as heredity plays an important part in the tendency of the hair to become gray.

The League is Doomed

It was William Howard Taft who pointed out a few weeks ago, that the peace treaty could not be ratified with the league of nations as brought home by the president, even though Governor Cox, democratic candidate for president, were elected, which is a very remote possibility.

The World Peace Foundation now comes forward with a statement, sanctioning the very thing which Mr. Taft said and calling attention to the fact that there can be no "solemn referendum" on the league of nations question at this election. Still Gov. Cox continues wasting perfectly good breath in seeking election on the strength of his position in favor of the Wilson league. Ratification of the peace treaty requires the votes of two-thirds of the senators. That was impossible in the last senate and will be equally as impossible in the next senate because, even though all of the reservationists were succeeded by pro-leaguers, many votes would still be lacking.

It is quite settled in the mind of the average person that if Pres. Wilson had approached the senate in the spirit of compromise, the treaty would have been ratified long ago, even though Gov. Cox says the president was willing to accept reservations.

Wilson is The Issue

The greatest oratorical barrage in United States history is now to be directed by President Wilson. Cox as the leader in the campaign has disappeared. Gone into the dust heap are talks on throttling conspiracies of the press and all such peurile issues. A small army under the Commander-in-Chief with headquarters in the White House will sally forth this week to fight on the stump for the one great administration issue—the Wilson league of nations as she was writ. This is no cry for help from the disheartened one but the result of strategy on the part of the real leader, who having let Cox have his fling and alarmed at the result now takes charge in hopes to save the day for the league. Colby, Baker, Harrison, Cummings, McAdoo, all the administration chiefs who can orate and five hundred speakers beside are under orders to start a drive this week all over the United States. Every democratic governor has been drafted and filled with league dope. Response is said not to be encouraging as funds are low and services are largely expected to be voluntary.

This jump into the field by Mr. Wilson was expected after Mr.

Cox's announcement that he not Wilson is running this time. The President does not propose to be dumped by any candidate nor to see any candidate let the banner of the Wilson league trail in the dust. After all there can be but one true democratic champion and he is the "Allah of the White House". Mr. Wilson is entirely right. He is the issue in this campaign.

The American Goat

A recent cable dispatch from an American correspondent touring Europe contains this illuminating paragraph:

"In the opinion of well balanced people here the European governments can pay neither the principal nor the interest on the ten billion dollar debt they owe to the government of the United States. That the American people must pay". Comment? one is necessary. The cat is out of the bag, and it is some cat. And Mr. American is some goat.

Most all of us had been led to believe Mr. Cox was against reaction in any form, but now he is crowing of what he chooses to term the reaction against the republican party.

The president's "appeal" may have been more of a check for the democratic campaign than was the $5000 he sent.

When prices come down to earth again it is to be hoped Cupid comes with them. Wedding bells are becoming rusty from too much idleness, and the county clerk and the preachers need the fees.

Yes, little William, when you reach the point where you "know it all, you will still have much to learn from dad.

Every man is born free in this country, but some do not long remain so after marriage.

A kind word costs nothing. But perhaps the absence of a profiteering value is the reason why some people are so sparing in their use in these days of skyrocketing.

Current Comment

In a Nutshell

(Boston Transcript)

A first voter writes to ask that we tell her in a nutshell who we think the next President of the United States will be and why. We answer gladly and confidently: Warren G. Harding, because:

(1) American independence is just as dear to the heart of the average American in 1920 as it was in 1776.

(2) The Government of the Constitution is better in the opinion of the average American than the best one man government ever set up, better than any super-government that can be maintained.

(3) The policy of Washington, and the doctrine of Monroe are two fundamentals of foreign policy which the average American is unwilling to abandon for any "entangling alliance", past, present or to come.

(4) Unless the United States is permitted to enter a society of nations as the voting equal of the British Empire, the average American is not in favor of "going in".

(5) Robbing China to buy immunity from Japan's aggressions is a proposal that offends the conscience of the average American.

(6) Pledging in advance the blood and treasures of America's posterity to maintain and preserve against external aggression, or danger or threat of attack, "the territorial integrity and existing political independence" of the far-flung British Empire and the far distant empire of Japan, is an undertaking at which the average American balks, and he considers that the invitation to make such a pledge reflects upon his common sense.

Mr. Harding is the standard-bearer in this campaign of the average American. There are other reasons but in defence of the request of our correspondent we have endeavored to answer "in a nutshell" her pertinent question.

SUMMERTIME.

The leaves upon the alders clapped their hands, their little hands—An errant breeze had teased them into laughter.

A ray of sun went dancing o'er the lands, the fertile lands, The perfume of a rose came running after.

The waters of the river caught their smile, their cheery smile, And rippled joy to ev'ry merry corner.

A robin fluttered softly to the stile, the shady stile, And raised his head to sing a song of Summer.

Lake's Level Has Fallen.
The pre-historic Lake Tahoe was larger and deeper than the present lake. During the Neocene epoch and earlier part of the Pleistocene epoch its water stood much higher, but in its overflow it has cut through the lava dams that maintained it at the height. Beaches that mark the former higher level are about 100 feet above the present surface and doubtless the water once stood even higher.

THE first thing you want in foods and the all important thing is purity.

Foods should be nourishing. That's what they are for—to build up strong, sturdy bodies.

Calumet Baking Powder is pure in the can. It is made in the largest, cleanest, most modern Baking Powder Factories on earth—only of such ingredients as have been officially endorsed by United States Food Authorities.

KEEP your baking costs down

HERE'S THE BEST WAY

USE CALUMET BAKING POWDER

It's pure in the baking. Calumet never fails to produce the sweetest and most palatable of nourishing foods.

It has more than the ordinary leavening strength. You use less of it. That's one reason it is the most economical of all leaveners.

Another reason is—it is sold at a moderate price—you save when you buy it.

Pound can of Calumet contains full 16 oz. Some baking powders come in 12 oz. instead of 16 oz. cans. Be sure you get a pound when you want it.

Calumet Waffle Recipe

2 1/4 cups sifted pastry flour, 3 level teaspoons Calumet Baking Powder, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 1/2 cups milk, 1 tablespoon sugar, 2 tablespoons of melted butter, 2 eggs beaten separately. Then mix in the regular way.

"I am glad to be in this city," said Mr. McCray, "because about it clusters many things I love to treasure. I remember that this was the home of your late esteemed citizen, Jack Gowdy, who was my very good friend and who was one of the staunch pioneers of Indiana."

"I am also glad to be here because this is the home town of my good friend, the matchless senator from Indiana, James E. Watson."

"At this time," the speaker continued, "I feel that it is the first duty of every American to determine how he can best serve his country. Our duty was clear during the war, but now it is over we must grapple with very serious questions."

"The history of the republican party will bear out my statement that the great crises of the past have been met and solved by that party."

The speaker enumerated the emancipation of the slaves, the home-stead laws and the tariff bill of 1896 as the great pieces of legislation which had contributed most to the progress of this country.

"I have faith in me abundant," he continued, "that the republican party is the greatest the world has ever seen."

Mr. McCray pointed out the fallacy of the democratic tariff doctrine, showing that the country was headed towards a panic in 1914 because of it, but was saved by the war.

"I am pleased to think of the state as a large corporation with three million stockholders," he said, "and I am asking to serve as chairman of the board of directors. I believe that the state should have a budget system and I propose to select a commission, if I am elected, to investigate the systems of our neighboring states and get the best from them. I believe that we should set an example for economy in government affairs if we expect the people to practice economy. If elected, I will draw about me dependable men who are capable and willing to serve and I will give the public all the energy I have."

Mr. McCray said he favored good roads and will see that the people get the most out of every dollar paid. He declared for efficiency in state penal institutions. The candidate also pointed out that he had long been a warm advocate of equal suffrage because he could never understand why so large a percent of the electorate should be deprived of the ballot.

"I am encouraged," he said, "to see the way the women are rallying to their responsibility because their participation means better conditions."

Judge Sparks introduced George Barnard as "the coming orator" and for fear the phrase would be misinterpreted, stated that he "was here." Mr. Barnard impressed the audience as no other speaker in the local campaign has. He paid a very eloquent tribute, at the opening of his speech, to Senator Watson.

"I am fearful that you people here in Rush county do not realize that your county is distinguished by having such a citizen," he said. "He is the peer of the senate, the highest body of the greatest law making body on the belted globe. Every man in the senate respects his genius and his ability. You have to go to Washington to understand the position which he holds."

Mr. Barnard made an appeal for the election of Senator Watson and Congressman Elliott so that Harding will have back of him a congress which will uphold him.

The speaker took up a detailed discussion of the league of nations and was applauded to the echo when he praised the band of senators for standing against the league of nations as brought back by Woodrow Wilson.

"I want you to get this firmly fixed in your mind," he said, "that the failure to ratify the league of nations rests squarely on Wilson's shoulders."

The speaker discussed the justice of the league and showed how England has the power to elect the four extra members of the council, the high governing body, because of its influence and its secret treaties. He pointed out that in the assembly in which each nation is represented by one vote, England has six votes to the United States' one, and that any one of the five dependencies of England may be elected to the council.

"In asking us to ratify his covenant," Mr. Barnard declared, "Wil-

The SANDMAN STORY

MR. PORCUPINE

ONE morning, Bob Rabbit and Tim Hare were running through the woods, when Bob espied Mr. Porcupine sitting in the doorway of his home.

"There is old Mr. Hedgehog," he said in a whisper to Tim Hare. "Better not let him see you because he can throw one of those sharp darts he carries under his long, coarse hair."

But Mr. Porcupine heard Bob Rabbit, for his ears are very keen and he at once bristled; but before Tim and Bob had time to run he spoke to them and dropped his quills out of sight.

"Come here," he called. "I won't hurt you. I want to explain a few things to you youngsters so you will am and if you could hear the story from some animal that has tried to harm him, I guess he would tell you a very different story if he ever tried the same thing on me.

"I do not throw my quills at an enemy as many think, but I can easily let an enemy carry away as many as he likes so deeply buried in him that they have to be drawn out.

"Now, Mr. Hedgehog uses his quills to defend himself, but he cannot wound as I can, and look at my tail. Why, you should see me use that when an enemy tries to attack me."

Mr. Porcupine suddenly dropped his head, arched his back and planted his feet firmly with all his quills or spines erect and swung around his club-like tail with many more spines, so swiftly that Tim Hare and Bob Rabbit ran.

When they were at some distance from Mr. Porcupine's house they peeped out from behind a tree where they had taken refuge.

"Did you ever see your friend, Mr. Hedgehog, do that?" called Mr. Porcupine, looking very calm again.

"He is not a friend of ours," answered Bob Rabbit. "I just thought you had two names and that Hedgehog was one of them."

"Well, I have only one name and don't you let me hear you call me by any other," said Mr. Porcupine, walking toward them.

"You will never hear us call you anything," called Bob and Tim as they scampered off through the woods.

"I know why he was so angry," said Tim Hare, when they were safe in their part of the woods. "Mr. Hedgehog is the little fellow that rolls up like a ball when he is scared and Mr. Porcupine thinks he is a coward for not fighting as he does."

"Well, they both have very sharp quills and I think Mr. Porcupine is very fussy," said Bob Rabbit, "but I will not get near enough to call him anything again. I can tell you that."

never call a Porcupine a Hedgehog again. It just makes me bristle when I hear that name."

"But we thought you were Mr. Hedgehog," said Bob Rabbit, keeping at a distance, in spite of Mr. Porcupine's promise.

"Yes, I know, and so do many others think that is my name," said Mr. Porcupine, "but if you listen I will tell you the difference."

"In the first place we are in no way related, although Mr. H. has quills, but he eats ants and many things which I would scorn."

"And he is not nearly as large as I

The new year of the Monday Circle was opened yesterday afternoon, with a lecture by Mrs. Demarchus Brown, at the first meeting at the home of Mrs. Harry Kramer in North Harrison street. "Impressions of Belgium" was the subject of the talk given by Mrs. Brown, it being a fitting climax of the studies of the club last year on "Modern Belgium and France."

Mrs. Brown prefaced the lecture by giving the historical background of the country and then leading up to the effects the world war had on Belgium. Mrs. Brown also dealt considerably with the German's treatment of the Belgian people during the war.

Only the members of the club and a few invited guests were present for the meeting. During the informal social period at the close of the lecture, the hostess served a dainty luncheon.

The next meeting of the Circle will be held Monday afternoon October 25, and will be held at the home of Miss Jennie Madden in North Main street, instead of with Mrs. Wooden as announced in the program. At this time the club will take up their year's study of South America, the continent of opportunity.

COTTON OWNERS IN TERROR

Fear Widespread Destruction From Night Riders

(By United Press)
Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 22.—Widespread destruction by terrorists was feared by cotton growers today. In Douglas county the officers offered a $300 reward for a cotton gin that is selling cotton below 40 cents. Night riders have threatened growers selling for less than 40 cents.

The sheriff of Douglas county appealed to Governor Dorsey for assistance. He declared that he could do nothing under the law until the threats are carried out. The authorities do not believe that the situation is serious.

Anniston, La., Oct. 12.—A mass meeting of citizens met last evening to effect an organization for the protection of the cotton gins. A vigilant organization may be formed.

Lower Prices—a Striking Factor in Fall Apparel, Fabrics and Home Furnishings

These October displays provide unlooked-for opportunities to purchase necessities which, up to now, living costs have made almost prohibitive. Apparel, fabrics and home furnishings bear price marks that definitely promise some of the greatest values of the season. This store takes pride in its pioneering efforts to secure a more normal lower price standard.

With Winter Almost Here You'll Want
NEW RUGS FOR THE HOME

Your inspection of our foreign and domestic rugs is invited. They are excellent in quality, in coloring and in the service they will give you. A home is most enjoyed in Winter. New rugs will make it a pleasant place during the "shut-in" season. Our collection of high grade orientals is in living room and scatter rug sizes. $15.00 to $170.00.

With Prices Lower Every
Woman Takes Interest in
NEW CLOTHES

It's good to know one can buy Frocks and Suits and Wraps again without being extravagant. A significant decrease in cost on apparel is apparent while quality and excellence of workmanship remain uniformly high.

Styles Come and Go, but a Suit's a Suit
And Not to be Overlooked

There's an attractive "something" to these Suits that is partly price and partly good looks which will appeal to you most strongly. Step in and ask to see them. From $35.00 to $135.00.

The Feminine World Loves
A FUR CHOKER

And why not? It's most becoming, and snugly and warm, and gives a suit just that last little "oh! so necessary" touch which is credited to good grooming. One may select single or two animal chokers in sable, mink, stone marten or fisher fur.

On Frosty Nights It's Good to Know
There Are
PLENTY OF WOOL BLANKETS

The first touch of cold weather finds us scurrying to the cedar chest and the linen closet for extra bedding. Rather than run shy it's a good plan to have on hand an extra pair of heavy all wool blankets, striped, plaid or plain. The guest room each year needs a fresh new pair. $8.50 to $20.00.

GLOVES
Have You Fresh Ones?

Autumn finds one needing stout gauntlets of dogskin for street, plenty of short and long white fabric models, because they are so easily washed and also a supply of kid gloves in white, bisque, lemon and all exquisite shades that one likes for best. Ranging in price from $1.25 to $5.00 the pair.

Cold Weather Finds the Need for a Supply of

NEW KNIT UNDERWEAR

Besides considering the importance of being warmly clad both now and in winter comes the equally weighty task of getting well-fitting garments that cause no unnecessary bulkiness. Our stocks for women, children, girls and little boys are now complete and include medium, light and heavy weight garments in various mixtures of silk, wool and cotton.

Final Showing of "The Prey"

Jessie, serving as a maid in the home of Henry Lowe, millionaire profiteer, devotes a natural talent for impersonation to imitating the voice, tones and mannerisms of her mistress. The difficulty of the achievement lies in the fact that Alice Joyce appears in the role of the mistress. This situation is in "The Prey," a Vitaphone special Alice Joyce production, which will be shown at the Princess theater for the last time today.

There is no effort made in this exciting society drama to cause Jessie's imitations of her mistress to confuse those viewing the picture. It is only in the action of the play that characters appearing on the screen are deceived. Admirers of the personality, the talent and the rare charm of Miss Joyce, however, will find the attempts at imitation interesting.

"The Prey" gives Miss Joyce unusual opportunities for the display of a wide range of emotions, from the romantic love of a care free girl to the anguish of a sensitive woman, married through trickery and coercion to a brute. The drama abounds in tense situations. A happy ending of all the sorrows and misunderstandings is indicated at the close.

House Peters at Mystic

All history has proven that nations may rise to fame and power and fade and decay into the musty pages of history, but their art still lives.

Early in 1918 a young lady in Boone, Ia., overcome with emotion at the performance of House Peters in one of his great screen successes was smitten by the Muse of Poetry and taking her pen in hand dashed off some very interesting verses dedicated to Mr. Peters. Having accomplished this feat she forthwith placed her poem in a letter addressed to Mr. Peters and eagerly awaited a reply.

That was nearly two years ago. The letter with the poem enclosed reached Mr. Peters in Los Angeles where he starred in "Silk Husband's and Calico Wives". But the letter up to its arrival, showed that it had traveled to the four corners of the earth and had touched practically every county during its two years' travel. Mr. Peters had been traveling extensively and the letter had not only been forwarded to places where he was known to be but had also been sent to several possible addresses. The postmark showed that it had gone first to New York thence to California, thence to Japan and down to Australia. During its ramblings it had also been delivered in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, and from there had been forwarded to England and into France. Finally it was sent to Canada, then back to New York and reached its destination in Los Angeles during September.

Peters is at the Mystic today in "Silk Husband's and Calico Wives."

lis for its annual visit at the Shubert-Murat Theater for five nights commencing Tuesday, October 19.

The chief theme of the play is that of the folly of marriage between the white and the brown race and the tragedy that grows out of it. Its atmosphere, that of Hawaii in the days before the annexation to the United States, pictures the life of the Hawaiian people, the simple, childlike, Kanakas, with their singing, their dancing, their eating and their sloth, with their generous hospitality and their deep-seated superstition beneath the veneer of Christianity. As to the configuration of the country, near and remote from the cities and settlements the scenery employed is the most atmospheric of its kind.

Under the personal direction of Richard Walton Tully, a splendid cast of players have been assembled. Florence Rockwell, who has already endeared herself to the hearts of theatre-goers through her interpretation of Luana, the self-sacrificing Hawaiian princess, will again be seen in the title role. Robert Brister has the leading male role of Wilson. Brandon Evans will again enact Dean, the beachcomer, and Gertrude Walters is said to make a charming Diana. TO INTEREST PEOPLE IN STATE EDUCATION

Campaign Will be Made in Indiana During Week of November 7 to Arouse Hoosiers

MEETING IN EVERY SCHOOL

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 12—Indiana's educational system in 1890 ranked twenty-fifth among the States and Territories as to general efficiency. In 1900 the rank of Indiana was sixteenth, while in 1910 its rank was seventeenth among all the States and Territories. In 1918 the State had not advanced any since its rank was still seventeenth. There have been many random statements made about the rank of Indiana educationally during the last thirty years. These figures are official. They were obtained from the reports of the Russell Sage Foundation which has made a scientific investigation of the efficiency of the system of education in all the States and Territories covering a period beginning with 1890.

A State-Wide Speaking Campaign to get people from Indiana interested in the educational situation in this State will be conducted for ten days beginning Sunday, November 7. Pastors will be asked to discuss the needs of our schools from their pulpits. It is the desire of the State-Wide Committee of men and women having this campaign in charge that a meeting shall be held in every school house in Indiana during the ten days. Plans are now being made to push this campaign as rapidly as possible. It will be put on not for the purpose of raising money or raising salaries but for the purpose of interesting the people in improving Indiana's educational efficiency for the sake of the boys and girls enrolled in the schools.

The annual banquet will be held Thursday at six o'clock with President Friedly of the Muncie board acting as toastmaster.

185 audiences tried it this way

MOST people know that the musical enjoyment which they get out of a phonograph depends upon one thing. That thing is the phonograph's realism.

This picture shows the best way to test a phonograph's realism. Miss Betsy Lane Shepherd, the famous soprano, is standing beside the New Edison, and singing in direct comparison with the New Edison's RE-CREATION of her voice.

185 audiences, aggregating more than 100,000 people, have actually heard this comparison. None could distinguish between her living voice and its RE-CREATION.

This is one of the phenomenal records of realism. The New Edison holds all other records of realism, too, because no other phonograph attempts this comparison-test—or could sustain it.

The NEW EDISON

"The Phonograph with a Soul"

You try it this way

—the way we use in our store!—the Realism Test! Test the New Edison's Realism against the pleasure you know music can bring.

Tell us what kind of voice or instrument gives you truest musical enjoyment. Listen while we play your favorite on the New Edison. The Realism Test will enable you to gauge whether the New Edison's RE-CREATION gives you all of this enjoyment.

This is your test! It will help you determine what the New Edison's Realism means, in terms of your own musical enjoyment.

Ask for it! The "Personal Favorites" Realism Test.

Another thing to ask about is our Budget Plan. It disposes of the money question, in a way that will appeal to your common-sense and to your pocketbook.

BUT ONLY ONE

PEPSINCO

PEPSINCO is the only indigestion remedy that we know—and we know lots of so called dyspepsia cures—that will almost infallibly relieve an attack of indigestion, food distress or gas. We could almost make claims that would appear impossible, so seldom does this PEP-SINCO fail. But why not consider the recommendation of thousands of people who have used PEP-SINCO, on the basis of their belief in it. Try it yourself; we are sure that the suggestion will appeal to you—you who suffer with indigestion or stomach faults—try PEP-SINCO to-day.

In Memoriam

In loving remembrance of our dear wife and mother Clara Newkirk Gartin, who departed this life one year ago today, Oct. 12—1919. Sad and sudden was the call of her so dearly loved by all.

Her memory is as dear today as in the hour she passed away. We have missed her coming footsteps, we have missed her everywhere.

Home has lost its greatest sunbeam since you left us Clara and mother dear.

It is sweet to breathe thy name; In life we loved you dearly, in death we do the same

The moon and stars are shining on a lone and silent grave.

One whom we loved but could not save.

There are those who still linger near, who will come and scatter flowers on the grave.

Her daily toils are over.

Her work on earth is done.

Not dead but gone to meet the loved ones who have gone on before, and to wait for her loved ones one by one.

Only waited seven months and three days, for her grandson, Vernon L. Gartin, who departed this life May 15, 1920, age three years, four months and four days.

Quite Likely.

American women bathers with an inclination to embonpoint, it is stated, have taken to painting dimples on their knees. The report that a fashionable New Yorker who does not care for the water has created the necessary illusion by having a lobster painted on her top is probably premature. — From Punch, London.

The Gasoline Situation in 1910 and Now

IN 1910 there were approximately 400 thousand cars in the United States.

To operate these cars there was available a gasoline production of 750 million gallons, or, approximately, 1875 gallons per car.

In 1919 there were more than 7 million cars and trucks operating in the United States.

To supply these engines there was available, according to Bureau of Mines Report, 3 billion, 957 million gallons of gasoline, or, approximately, 565 gallons per car.

In neither case has consideration been given to the demand of tractors, stationary gas engines, or the gasoline required by the arts and industries. Nor have we considered the large volume of this product shipped abroad annually.

The above figures are presented so that you may visualize one of the problems the petroleum industry has been called upon to solve in the past decade.

In 1910 the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) marketed about 20 percent of the gasoline output of the United States, or approximately 150 million gallons. In 1919 this Company sold about 640 million gallons of gasoline, or about 17 percent of the total for that year.

It has been the task of the 7 men who manage the affairs of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) for the 5124 stockholders, not one of whom owns as much as 10 percent of the total, to expand the organization not only to keep pace with, but to keep ahead of the extraordinary and persistent demand for gasoline.

How well they have succeeded is illustrated clearly by the fact that in the 10-year period above mentioned, the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has taken a leading part in increasing gasoline production 440 percent, while crude oil production increased only 94 percent.

DISCIPLES WILL HOLD CONVENTION

Christian Church Delegates Will Gather in St. Louis October 18-24 For International Meet

MEMBERSHIP IS 1,375,000

Special Trains Have Been Engaged to Carry Delegates From All Parts of Country to St. Louis

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 12.—Thousands of religious enthusiasts known as Disciples of Christ will gather in the St. Louis Coliseum October 18 to 24, for their International Convention. They are the largest religious gatherings held anywhere in America, and are the marvel of the religious world. The Disciples of Christ or Christian Church, is but a little over a hundred years old, being founded by the late Rev. Alexander Campbell, in Western Pennsylvania in 1809. The movement spread westward before the days of railroads, and waxed strong in the Ohio, Mississippi, and Missouri Valleys, because of its intense evangelism. Almost every community has citizens who recall "Campbellite" debates back in the fifties and sixties. The genius of the church is for the union of all Christians on the basis of the New Testament. The present membership is 1,375,000 with 10,000 churches and 7,000 preachers.

Besides the rapid growth in members, another marvel is its growth in missions or benevolences. A Home Missionary Society was formed, to plant churches. Most of the present congregations were thus begun. In 1875 a little group of ardent advocates of foreign missions met in the basement of a church in Louisville, Kentucky, and formed a Foreign Missionary Society. A little later the women of the body organized a National missionary endeavor among the women. Benevolences and other ministries were likewise established from time to time, and adopted by the church at large. The Rev. Mr. Campbell early realized that education is the heart of religion, and that if churches were to be established, they must have leaders. He established Bethany College, at Bethany, West Virginia. Other colleges have come into existence from time to time, until there are more than twenty denominational schools throughout the country. The latest educational institution is just now being established in Los Angeles, known as the California School of Religion. The school is made possible through the gift of $400,000 by C. C. Chapman, well known organ grower of Fullerton, California, to which California members of the church have added a like sum. The property value of the colleges runs into the millions. Bacon College, the first educational institution west of the Allegheny mountains, established in 1798, and chartered by the United States Government, is a Disciple college, now called Transylvania, located at Lexington, Kentucky.

Besides the Rev. Mr. Campbell, two other outstanding preachers of their time were prominent in the establishment of this church. The Rev. Walter Scott, and the Rev. Barton W. Stone, who labored largely in Kentucky. Their work also shows in the history of Missouri, Indiana, and other States. But it was Mr. Campbell who possessed the genius for leadership, and the popular name of the body at the time was "Campbellite" because of his leadership. The impolite name was obnoxious to Mr. Campbell and his followers, and is so even to the present day. In some sections the church is known as Church of Christ, or Christian church, while elsewhere it is known as Disciples of Christ.

President Garfield was a member of this church, and was President of Hiram College, a Disciple institution located at Hiram, Ohio, near Cleveland. Champ Clark is an elder in the Disciple congregation at Bowling Green, Missouri, and was educated at Bethany College. It is not generally known that Mr. Clark preached frequently in his college days, and always carried a Bible in his saddle-bags.

Controversy with religious neighbors was the order of the early day of the Disciples. This has given way to internal dispute from time to time. One group objected to the use of instrumental music in public worship, and to the organization of missionary societies, and withdrew in 1889, taking about 50,000 members. The parent body grew faster after the defection than before. "Where the Bible speaks, we speak, and where the Bible is silent we are silent" was the motto adopted by Mr. Campbell. This motto has stuck to the denomination for all times, and is quoted liberally in the literature.

SOVIETS REPLY TO BRITISH.

London, Oct. 11.—The Russian government returned non-committal notes to Lord Curzon, warning the British fleet that a Soviet submarine was seen in the Baltic Sea. The Soviet foreign minister said a Soviet representative was in London and will receive instructions regarding the situation.

A well-known statistician was giving some statements about a certain industry at a public dinner. "These are not my figures, ladies and gentlemen," he said. "They are the figures of a man who knows what he is talking about."

Not Merely "Self Starting"

THE Matthews "Automatic Caretaker" requires no prompting from the human brain in the recharging of the storage batteries. Long before they are exhausted to the danger point the "Automatic Caretaker" starts the engine recharging the batteries. And it automatically stops recharging when the batteries are full. How We Care For Your Meat Cars

When you see a Swift Refrigerator Car going by in a train, it seems a simple thing that it should be carrying fresh meat up and down the country.

Like most of the packer activities which contribute to your welfare, you are so used to having this going on uninterruptedly, day in, day out, throughout the year, that you are likely to take it as a matter of course.

But it is not a matter of course. Every car you see going by means long hours of minute, scientific, painstaking care in preparation for what it is doing.

Every time a car comes in it is washed out thoroughly with scalding water. If any taint, any foreign matter, were present, this would get rid of it. Even the meat hooks are taken down from the racks and scalded with water and live steam.

When the car is thoroughly cleaned we put in 5,000 pounds of ice. But that is only preliminary. It only cools the car to the proper temperature. By the time the car is moved over to receive its load, this first ice is melted. More is then put in to keep the car cool.

Then the meat is hung on the sterilized hooks and the load of food is ready for its journey. It arrives as it leaves, clean, fresh, wholesome, appetizing; and your meat supply goes on unaffected by seasons or weather.

This is only a part of the service which Swift & Company furnishes, at a profit to itself so small—averaging a fraction of a cent per pound on all products over a period of years—that if the profit were handed on to the consumer, it would make a difference of less than a nickel a week in the meat bill of the average American family.

Cleveland, Oct. 12.—The Cleveland Indians, American League champions, annexed another title today by winning the fourth straight game and the deciding one of the world series, 3 to 0.

Incidentally it was the third win for the veteran, Coveleski, who is credited with a victory every time he started in the series.

Cleveland won the first game of the series at Brooklyn last Tuesday, lost the next two at Brooklyn and won every one of the games on their home lot, which opened last Saturday.

Cleveland scored on two hits and an error in the fourth today and marked up another one in the fifth on two hits, the last one being a triple by Speaker. Two two-baggers netted one run in the seventh.

FIRST INNING.

Brooklyn—Olson popped to Gardner. Sheehan flied to Jamieson. Griffith safe at first when Coveleski dropped an easy chance. Wheat popped to Wambsganss. No runs, no hits, one error.

Cleveland—Jamieson out on a high hunt to Konetchy. Wambsganss flied to Wheat. Speaker popped to Sheehan. No runs, no hits, no errors.

SECOND INNING.

Brooklyn—Myers out, Sewell to W. Johnston; Konetchy out, Gardner to W. Johnston. Kilduff out, Sewell to W. Johnston. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Cleveland—Smith out, Kilduff to Konetchy. Gardner safe on first when Sheehan threw the ball past Konetchy. W. Johnston was walked. Sewell lined to Griffith and Gardner was held on second. O'Neill was out. Kilduff to Konetchy. No runs, no hits, one error.

THIRD INNING.

Brooklyn—Miller was fanned. Grimes drove a Texas Leaguer to left field. Olson was safe at first and Grimes at second when Sewell fumbled Olson's easy roller. Error for Sewell. Sheehan's batted ball struck Olson as he ran to second, and Olson was out. Wambsganss picked the ball up and threw it to third in order to head off Grimes, who slid in safely. Grimes, however, was ordered back to second by the umpires. Griffith flew to Smith. No runs, one hit, one error.

Cleveland—Coveleski fanned. Jamieson lined out to Grimes. Wambsganss beat out a slow roller in front of Grimes. Speaker was out. Kilduff to Konetchy. No runs, one hit, no errors.

FOURTH INNING.

Brooklyn—Wheat singled out to right field, but was caught at second while trying to stretch the single into a two-base hit. Myers out. Gardner to W. Johnston. Konetchy flied to Jamieson. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Pitcher for Brooklyn Team Pleads Guilty to Charge and Pays Fine of $1 and Costs

SAYS IT WAS ALL A JOKE

(By United Press)

Cleveland, Ohio, Oct. 12.—"Rube" Marquard, star pitcher for the Brooklyn Dodgers, was found guilty of ticket scalping today and was fined $1 and costs. Marquard's attorney did not appeal his case and the pitcher paid his fine and costs amounting to $3.80.

In imposing the fine Judge Silbert stated: "You act like a real rogue." Marquard was arrested in a hotel for offering to sell six world series tickets for $650. The pitcher told the judge that he offered the tickets as a joke and really purchased them for his brother.

Cleveland, Ohio, Oct. 12.—"It was all a frameup," declared Rube Marquard today when he was found guilty of ticket scalping. "Authorities do not believe that I was guilty, or they would have fined me more than a $1 and costs."

Manager Robinson did not think Marquard was guilty of any wrong doing.

RETAIL COAL MEN

Act on The Ground That Prices Fixed by New Commission Are Confiscating

WILL NOT BUY INDIANA COAL

Operators Assert Mines Would Operate at Loss Under Prices Allowed Them

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 12.—Retail coal dealers are cancelling their contracts with the Indiana mine owners on the ground that the fuel prices fixed by the new coal and fuel commission are confiscating and that the margin of profit is insufficient.

According to an Indianapolis operator, this means the retailers are not going to buy Indiana coal. The operators assert the mines would operate at a loss under the prices fixed by the commission and that many idle mines would result if the prices were not changed.

Jesse Eschbach received a message from the Knox county coal association today promising the food and fuel commission twenty carloads of coal today and that amount tomorrow.

Another telegram was received from the Queen Coal Mining Company of Jaxsonville, promising the coal commission coal from some of their mines but declared that coal from other mines they owned could not be supplied.

The assertion that "Indiana coal producers have no intention of falling into the program" of the state special coal and food commission for fixing prices on coal is made in a statement in which Phil H. Penna, of Terre Haute, secretary and treasurer of the Indiana Bituminous Coal Operators' Association, is quoted. Mr. Penna was in Indianapolis Monday evening, and the statement was made public then.

Jesse Eschbach, chairman of the commission, does not believe, however, that the statement represents the attitude of all the coal operators in Indiana and he accepts the challenge only in that light. He has received assurance from Carl J. Continued on Page Two

COLUMBUS DAY DID

NOT PASS UNNOTICED

Four Hundredth Anniversary of Founding of America Celebrated Here in 1892

SERIES OF EXERCISES HELD

Columbus Day did not pass unnoticed in Rushville twenty-eight years ago, when the four hundredth anniversary of the discovery of America was appropriately observed in Rushville and in schools throughout the county. The observance in 1892, however, took place on October 21.

Files of the Republican, which was then a semi-weekly newspaper, describe the celebration in Rushville. On the morning of the day, school children of the city marched to the first ward building where appropriate services were held. The proclamation of the president was read by Will Jones and that of the governor by John Moore. The address was delivered by J. M. Stevens, who was commander of Joel Wolfe post of the G. A. R. The colors were hoisted while 800 school children sang patriotic songs. The procession then moved to the third ward building where an address was delivered by Dr. J. H. Ford.

In the afternoon appropriate exercises were held at the old Rushville academy and in the evening at Melodeon hall. The paper describes the meeting by saying that the hall was packed with people and that the children's voices in the play were scarcely audible because of the confusion due to the large crowd. The opening address on that occasion was made by Rosa Fargo.

Mays and Carthage Each Turn Out Big This Morning

A good sized delegation of Republicans left this morning in automobiles accompanying Warren T. McCray, candidate for governor, to Mays and Carthage, where he addressed large crowds this morning. Mr. McCray, who spoke here last night remained over until this morning, and about twelve automobiles went on the tour of the two towns in northern Rush county. The speaking at Mays was held about 9:15 and following a thirty minute speech, the party continued on to Carthage, where a large crowd was waiting on the public square. After Mr. McCray had concluded his Carthage address he left in a machine for other points, and the local delegation returned home.

FINDS JOHNSON MEN

ARE ALL FOR HARDING

Zell C. Swain Primary Campaign Manager For California Senator; Visits in Rushville

HAS BEEN ALL OVER STATE

Zell C. Swain of Indianapolis, who was manager of the Johnson primary campaign in Indiana, was in Rushville last night for the republican meeting and reported to local republicans that the republicans who supported Senator Hiram Johnson in the primary for the nomination for president, were now solidly behind Senator Warren G. Harding.

"I have been going about the state for several weeks," said Mr. Swain, "and everywhere I find that the most ardent Johnson men in the primary campaign are for Harding, Watson and McCray. They have followed the lead of Senator Johnson and are supporting Senator Harding in his position on the league and other issues of the campaign."

Mr. Swain said that he had talked to a number of Johnson men in this county and had found conditions here similar to their counties in the state.

Senator Johnson ran fourth in the primary in this county, receiving 414 votes.

WILL ATTEND SECOND

SYNOD OF U. P. CHURCH

R. A. Innis Will go as Delegate to Meeting Which Will Open at Springhill Tonight

OTHER MEMBERS TO ATTEND

The second synod of the United Presbyterian church will convene tonight at 7:30 at the Springhill church, near Clarksville, when over 100 delegates from this part of Indiana and Ohio will assemble for the three day session. R. A. Innis will attend from this city as a delegate from the local church, and the Rev. J. T. Aikin, local pastor will also attend the sessions, as well as members of the congregation.

The meeting tonight will open with an address by the retiring moderator, Dr. J. Kelly Griffen, president of Knoxville college, Knoxville, Tenn., and a new moderator will be elected.

Tomorrow will be devoted to the usual routine of business that comes before the synod, together with the selection of the next meeting place. Since its organization, the synod has convened five times at the Springhill church, meeting there in 1860, 1874, 1886 and 1897. It met here about ten years ago, and more recently met in Milroy. The sessions last year were in Morning Sun, Ohio.

Because of the nearness of Springhill the local church will be well represented. Meets will be served in the basement of the church. A short business session will be held Thursday morning, which will end the session.

ENTHUSIASM RUNS

HIGH AT MEETING

George Barnard Climaxes Republican Speaking Monday Night With Eloquent Address

FROM MOTHER'S VIEWPOINT

Mrs. Martha E. Abt Speaks Against The League of Nations—McCray Urges Budget System

More genuine enthusiasm was displayed at the republican meeting in the court room at the court house Monday night than has been exhibited at any local political gathering this campaign.

It remained for George Barnard of Newcastle, son of Congressman W. O. Barnard who once represented the sixth district in congress, to climax the other speeches of the evening with an eloquent appeal for Republican success at the polls November 2.

He was preceded by Mrs. Martha E. Abt of Chicago, who discussed the league of nations from a mother's viewpoint, and Warren T. McCray of Kentland, republican candidate for governor.

The court room was crowded and scores of people were turned away because they could not get within hearing distance of the speakers. Judge Will M. Sparks presided and introduced the speakers. On account of the meeting lasting until after ten o'clock, there was no time for other candidates present to speak, and an informal reception for them was held in the corridors. R. N. Elliott of Connersville, candidate for re-election to congress; Rowland N. Hill of Carthage, candidate for joint senator, and W. R. Jungt, candidate for re-election to the state house of representatives, shook hands with their friends after the meeting.

"Do you want to go to the polls November 2 and by your vote crucify your boy and every mother's boy for generations to come by this damnable league of nations?" asked Mrs. Abt, addressing her appeal to the mothers in the audience, as she closed a severe criticism of the covenant.

Mrs. Abt was greeted with prolonged applause when she asserted that 50,000 democrats in Oklahoma had registered as republicans.

The speaker declared that she had been coming from one end of the country to the other trying to find why any woman should be a democrat and she had never learned yet. She told about being questioned by a woman who said she knew nothing about the league of nations.

"I answered her," Mrs. Abt said, "that there were about 110,000,000 other people who knew nothing about it."

Mrs. Abt referred to another woman who asked her son, who is one of 18,000 American boys guarding the Rhine, was coming home. She had not seen him for three years.

"Just as soon after March 4, 1921, as Warren G. Harding is inaugurated," Mrs. Abt told her, "and can call the senate together and pass a resolution declaring that a state of peace exists between the United States and Germany."

The speaker declared that a recent assertion of Lloyd George was ample reason for the United States to stay out of the league. She pointed out that when asked why England did not declare war on Soviet Russia, the British premier replied that it was because America was the only nation with the money and men and that "they are not co-operating."

"But we would be co-operating," she asserted with some vehemence, "if we were in the league of nations."

Judge Sparks, introducing Mr. McCray, said that on one occasion when he was in the section of the state where the gubernatorial candidate lives, he heard nothing but expressions of high regard and esteem for Mr. McCray.

"Next to his own county," said the judge, "I am sure that he has no more friends any place than right here in Rush county."

Fletcher, of the Knox County Coal Operators' Association, that the Knox county organization would have twenty-five carloads of coal at the disposal of the commission today for emergency distribution.

Mr. Penna's statement says the commission has entered on a publicity campaign of amazing effort and palpable insincerity and falsehood. He says the program will ruin the coal business in Indiana and result in more disorder in coal distribution.

Mr. Eschbach asserts Mr. Penna represents only the operator who insists in his "pound of flesh" and who attempts to take all the profit the coal traffic will bear. He says that the commission will see that every operator, wholesaler and retailer obtains a fair return.

The Care of the Scalp

(By United States Health Service.)

HERE are a few very important things for you to know about your hair, and the proper way of caring for it.

First, and most important, is the fact that except for the root the hair is nothing but dead tissue.

It is the scalp and not the hair that must be treated.

"Gray hair" cannot be cured, that is, restored, except by dyes.

Baldness cannot be cured, except on rare occasions.

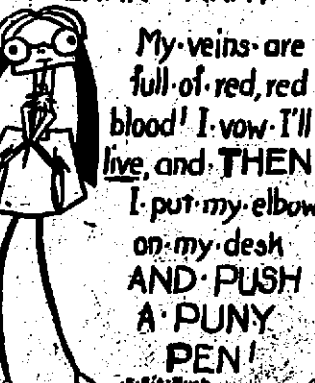

The scalp is just like the rest of the skin on the body, and should be kept as clean as the face or the hands. In order to do this the head should be washed at least once a week with a good tar or sulphur soap. This will not only help to keep the scalp free from dandruff, but will open the pores of the scalp and permit of the free flow of oil to make the hair glossy. It is folly to have the hair singed, as it is entirely useless. So-called "hair foods" cannot "nourish" the hair and should be wisely avoided.

If you want pretty hair, keep the scalp clean and healthy. Wash the head and hair clean and rinse out all soap. Then dry thoroughly with a hot towel. If the hair should become "dry" from too much washing, apply a mixture of grain alcohol and castor oil, about five teaspoonfuls of oil to the pint of alcohol. This will restore the gloss to the hair, and also act as an excellent anti-septic for dandruff.

When the hair persists in falling out and bald spots appear, the fault is not always with the scalp, but may be some remote underlying cause. Consult a physician instead of a barber, as the falling hair may be a symptom of some disease he could readily recognize and cure. Often when the hair is falling out it is being replaced by new hair.

Gray hair is caused by a loss of pigment, or coloring matter, and small air bubbles getting into the hair and giving it the white appearance. There is no way of curing this condition, although it may sometimes be prevented by keeping the scalp healthy and clean. This is not always possible, however, as heredity plays an important part in the tendency of the hair to become gray.

"I am glad to be in this city," said Mr. McCray, "because about it clusters many things I love to treasure. I remember that this was the home of your late esteemed citizen, Jack Gowdy, who was my very good friend and who was one of the staunch pioneers of Indiana."

"I am also glad to be here because this is the home town of my good friend, the matchless senator from Indiana, James E. Watson."

"At this time," the speaker continued, "I feel that it is the first duty of every American to determine how he can best serve his country. Our duty was clear during the war, but now it is over we must grapple with very serious questions."

"The history of the republican party will bear out my statement that the great crises of the past have been met and solved by that party."

The speaker enumerated the emancipation of the slaves, the homestead laws and the tariff bill of 1896 as the great pieces of legislation which had contributed most to the progress of this country.

"I have faith in the abundant," he continued, "that the republican party is the greatest the world has ever seen."

Mr. McCray pointed out the fallacy of the democratic tariff doctrine, showing that the country was headed towards a panic in 1914 because of it, but was saved by the war.

"I am pleased to think of the state as a large corporation with three million stockholders," he said, "and I am asking to serve as chairman of the board of directors. I believe that the state should have a budget system and I propose to select a commission, if I am elected, to investigate the systems of our neighboring states and get the best from them. I believe that we should set an example for economy in government affairs if we expect the people to practice economy. If elected, I will draw about me dependable men who are capable and willing to serve and I will give the public all the energy I have."

Mr. McCray said he favored good roads and will see that the people get the most out of every dollar paid. He declared for efficiency in state penal institutions. The candidate also pointed out that he had long been a warm advocate of equal suffrage because he could never understand why so large a percent of the electorate should be deprived of the ballot.

"I am encouraged," he said, "to see the way the women are rallying to their responsibility because their participation means better conditions."

Judge Sparks introduced George Barnard as "the coming orator" and for fear the phrase would be misinterpreted, stated that he "was here."

Mr. Barnard impressed the audience as no other speaker in the local campaign has. He paid a very eloquent tribute, at the opening of his speech, to Senator Watson.

"I am fearful that you people here in Rush county do not realize that your county is distinguished by having such a citizen," he said. "He is the peer of the senate, the highest body of the greatest law making body on the belted globe. Every man in the senate respects his genius and his ability. You have to go to Washington to understand the position which he holds."

Mr. Barnard made an appeal for the election of Senator Watson and Congressman Elliott so that Harding will have back of him a congress which will uphold him.

The speaker took up a detailed discussion of the league of nations and was applauded to the echo when he praised the band of senators for standing against the league of nations as brought back by Woodrow Wilson.

"I want you to get this firmly fixed in your mind," he said, "that the failure to ratify the league of nations rests squarely on Wilson's shoulders."

The speaker discussed the justice of the league and showed how England has the power to elect the four extra members of the council, the high governing body, because of its influence and its secret treaties. He pointed out that in the assembly in which each nation is represented by one vote, England has six votes to the United States' one, and that any one of the five dependencies of England may be elected to the council.

"In asking us to ratify his covenant," Mr. Barnard declared, "Wilson damns us to the position we were in before we fought Great Britain for our independence. Are we going to turn our backs on that struggle and admit we are on a par with New Zealand, which is half as large as Chicago?"

He cited the fact that parties to a dispute before the league council can not vote and that if the Japanese immigration question were referred to the league, foreigners would decide what the United States domestic policy would be.

The speaker referred to the rape of Shantung and pointed out Wilson admitted Japan was allowed to take this rich Chinese province as a matter of expediency to keep Japan in the league.

Mr. Barnard produced a lot of fun by reading the names of the countries which have joined the league, such as Hayti and Hejaz, the latter being half the size of Cincinnati and comparing them with the United States, which is on an equality with them in the league.

MR. PORCUPINE

ONE morning, Bob Rabbit and Tim Hare were running through the woods, when Bob espied Mr. Porcupine sitting in the doorway of his home.

"There is old Mr. Hedgehog," he said in a whisper to Tim Hare. "Better not let him see you because he can throw one of those sharp darts he carries under his long, coarse hair."

But Mr. Porcupine heard Bob Rabbit, for his ears are very keen, and he at once bristled; but before Tim and Bob had time to run he spoke to them and dropped his quills out of sight.

"Come here," he called. "I won't hurt you. I want to explain a few things to you youngsters so you will never call a Porcupine a Hedgehog again. It just makes me bristle when I hear that name."

"But we thought you were Mr. Hedgehog," said Bob Rabbit, keeping at a distance, in spite of Mr. Porcupine's promise.

"Yes, I know, and so do many others think that is my name," said Mr. Porcupine, "but if you listen I will tell you the difference."

"In the first place we are in no way related, although Mr. H. has quills, but he eats ants and many things which I would scorn."

"And he is not nearly as large as I am and if you could hear the story from some animal that has tried to harm him, I guess he would tell you a very different story if he ever tried the same thing on me.

"I do not throw my quills at an enemy as many think, but I can easily let an enemy carry away as many as he likes so deeply buried in him that they have to be drawn out."

"Now, Mr. Hedgehog uses his quills to defend himself, but he cannot wound as I can, and look at my tail. Why, you should see me use that when an enemy tries to attack me."

Mr. Porcupine suddenly dropped his head, arched his back and planted his feet firmly with all his quills or spines erect and swung around his club-like tail with many more spines, so swiftly that Tim Hare and Bob Rabbit ran.

When they were at some distance from Mr. Porcupine's house they peeped out from behind a tree where they had taken refuge.

"Did you ever see your friend, Mr. Hedgehog, do that?" called Mr. Porcupine, looking very calm again.

"He is not a friend of ours," answered Bob Rabbit. "I just thought you had two names and that Hedgehog was one of them."

"Well, I have only one name and don't you let me hear you call me by any other," said Mr. Porcupine, walking toward them.

"You will never hear us call you anything," called Bob and Tim as they scampered off through the woods.

"I know why he was so angry," said Tim Hare, when they were safe in their part of the woods. "Mr. Hedgehog is the little fellow that rolls up like a ball when he is scared and Mr. Porcupine thinks he is a coward for not fighting as he does."

"Well, they both have very sharp quills and I think Mr. Porcupine is very fussy," said Bob Rabbit. "But I will not get near enough to call him anything again. I can tell you that."

FATHER DOUBTS IF CONFESSION IS TRUE

George Coughlin Still Believes Blakely is Alive Despite Story of Alleged Kidnapper

SEARCH TO BE MADE FOR BODY

(By United Press)
Norristown, Pa., Oct. 12.—George Coughlin, father of baby Blakely Coughlin, today was inclined to doubt the confession of Pasquale that his child was accidentally smothered to death and that it was buried at Egg Harbor, New Jersey.

Coughlin today was doubtful of the alleged confession and still believes the child is still alive.

It was pointed out that Pasquale made other confessions and that all of these had proven untrue.

COTTON OWNERS IN TERROR

Fear Widespread Destruction From Night Riders

(By United Press)
Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 22.—Widespread destruction by terrorists was feared by cotton growers today. In Douglas county the officers offered a $300 reward for a cotton gin that is selling cotton below 40 cents. Night riders have threatened growers, selling for less than 40 cents.

The sheriff of Douglas county appealed to Governor Dorsey for assistance. He declared that he could do nothing under the law until the threats are carried out. The authorities do not believe that the situation is serious.

Anniston, La., Oct. 12.—A mass meeting of citizens met last evening to effect an organization for the protection of the cotton gins. A vigilant organization may be formed.

Lower Prices—a Striking Factor in Fall Apparel, Fabrics and Home Furnishings

These October displays provide unlooked-for opportunities to purchase necessities which, up to now, living costs have made almost prohibitive. Apparel, fabrics and home furnishings bear price marks that definitely promise some of the greatest values of the season. This store takes pride in its pioneering efforts to secure a more normal lower price standard.

With Winter Almost Here You'll Want
NEW RUGS FOR THE HOME

Your inspection of our foreign and domestic rugs is invited. They are excellent in quality, in coloring and in the service they will give you. A home is most enjoyed in Winter. New rugs will make it a pleasant place during the "shut-in" season. Our collection of high grade orientals is in living room and scatter rug sizes. $15.00 to $170.00.

With Prices Lower Every
Woman Takes Interest in
NEW CLOTHES

It's good to know one can buy Frocks and Suits and Wraps again without being extravagant. A significant decrease in cost on apparel is apparent while quality and excellence of workmanship remain uniformly high.

Styles Come and Go, but a Suit's a Suit
And Not to be Overlooked

There's an attractive "something" to these Suits that is partly price and partly good looks which will appeal to you most strongly. Step in and ask to see them. From $35.00 to $135.00.

The Feminine World Loves
A FUR CHOKER

And why not? It's most becoming, and snugly and warm, and gives a suit just that last little "oh! so necessary" touch which is credited to good grooming. One may select single or two animal chokers in sable, mink, stone marten or fisher fur.

On Frosty Nights It's Good to Know
There Are
PLENTY OF WOOL BLANKETS

The first touch of cold weather finds us scurrying to the cedar chest and the linen closet for extra bedding. Rather than run shy it's a good plan to have on hand an extra pair of heavy all wool blankets, striped, plaid or plain. The guest room each year needs a fresh new pair. $8.50 to $20.00.

GLOVES
Have You Fresh Ones?

Autumn finds one needing stout gauntlets of dogskin for street, plenty of short and long white fabric models, because they are so easily washed and also a supply of kid gloves in white, bisque, lemon and all exquisite shades that one likes for best. Ranging in price from $1.25 to $5.00 the pair.

Cold Weather Finds the Need for a Supply of

NEW KNIT UNDERWEAR

Besides considering the importance of being warmly clad both now and in winter comes the equally weighty task of getting well-fitting garments that cause no unnecessary bulkiness. Our stocks for women, children, girls and little boys are now complete and include medium, light and heavy weight garments in various mixtures of silk, wool and cotton.

COMPLETE PLANS FOR THE FALL FESTIVAL

Today Marked The Opening of The Shelbyville Harvest Festival Arranged by Merchants

CLOSES THURSDAY NIGHT

Shelbyville, Ind., Oct. 12—Shelbyville resembled a picture of the well-known corn field today when the finishing touches were put on the lamp lighting and other posts in preparations for the annual fall festival.

Today marked the opening of the Harvest festival which has been arranged by a committee of the Merchants' association of this city.

The finance committee which was appointed several weeks ago, was fortified with liberal donations by the merchants.

The program for the three days which the event will cover include a band concert every evening while during the day there will be special amusements and entertainment by the merchants and other business houses.

The close on Thursday will be featured by a Mardi Gras on the public square where a place will be roped off for dancing.

Amusements

Final Showing of "The Prey"

Jessie, serving as a maid in the home of Henry Lowe, millionaire profiteer, devotes a natural talent for impersonation to imitating the voice, tones and mannerisms of her mistress. The difficulty of the achievement, lies in the fact that Alice Joyce appears in the role of the mistress. This situation is in "The Prey," a Vitaphone special Alice Joyce production, which will be shown at the Princess theater for the last time today.

There is no effort made in this exciting society drama to cause Jessie's imitations of her mistress to confuse those viewing the picture. It is only in the action of the play that characters appearing on the screen are deceived. Admirers of the personality, the talent and the rare charm of Miss Joyce, however, will find the attempts at imitation interesting.

"The Prey" gives Miss Joyce unusual opportunities for the display of a wide range of emotions, from the romantic love of a care free girl to the anguish of a sensitive woman, married through trickery and coercion to a brute. The drama abounds in tense situations. A happy ending of all the sorrows and misunderstandings is indicated at the close.

House Peters at Mystic

All history has proven that nations may rise to fame and power and fade and decay into the musty pages of history, but their art still lives.

Early in 1918 a young lady in Boone, Ind., overcame with emotion at the performance of House Peters in one of his great screen successes was smitten by the Muse of Poetry and taking her pen in hand dashed off some very interesting verses dedicated to Mr. Peters. Having accomplished this feat she forthwith placed her poem in a letter addressed to Mr. Peters and eagerly awaited a reply.

That was nearly two years ago. The letter with the poem enclosed reached Mr. Peters in Los Angeles where he starred in "Silk Husband and Calico Wives". But the letter up to its arrival, showed that it had traveled to the four corners of the earth and had touched practically every county during its two years' travel. Mr. Peters had been traveling extensively and the letter had not only been forwarded to places where he was known to be but had also been sent to several possible addresses. The postmark showed that it had gone first to New York thence to California, thence to Japan and down to Australia. During its ramblings it had also been delivered in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, and from there had been forwarded to England and into France. Finally it was sent to Canada, then back to New York and reached its destination in Los Angeles during September.

Peters is at the Mystic today in "Silk Husband and Calico Wives."

"The Bird of Paradise"

Plays may come and plays may go, but it seems as if "The Bird of Paradise", Richard Walton Tully's charming story of the Hawaiian Islands will go on forever. Now in its tenth year, it returns to Indianapolis lis for its annual visit at the Shubert-Murat Theater for five nights commencing Tuesday, October 19.

Camel

The chief theme of the play is that of the folly of marriage between the white and the brown race and the tragedy that grows out of it. Its atmosphere, that of Hawaii in the days before the annexation to the United States, pictures the life of the Hawaiian people, the simple, childlike, Kanakas, with their singing, their dancing, their eating and their sloth, with their generous hospitality and their deep-seated superstition beneath the veneer of Christianity. As to the configuration of the country, near and remote from the cities and settlements the scenery employed is the most atmospheric of its kind.

Under the personal direction of Richard Walton Tully, a splendid cast of players have been assembled. Florence Rockwell, who has already endeared herself to the hearts of theatre-goers through her interpretation of Luana, the self-sacrificing Hawaiian princess, will again be seen in the title role. Robert Brister has the leading male role of Wilson. Brandon Evans will again enact Dean, the beachcomer, and Gertrude Walters is said to make a charming Dianna. Others in the cast include Rose Watson James Applebee, Frank L. Cooley, Leo Carley, Gladys Kingsbury and the native quintette of Hawaiian singers and players, with their weird music give an atmospheric charm to this more delightful play.

TO INTEREST PEOPLE IN STATE EDUCATION

Campaign Will be Made in Indiana During Week of November 7 to Arouse Hoosiers

MEETING IN EVERY SCHOOL

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 12—Indiana's educational system in 1890 ranked twenty-fifth among the States and Territories as to general efficiency. In 1900 the rank of Indiana was sixteenth, while in 1910 its rank was seventeenth among all the States and Territories. In 1918 the State had not advanced any since its rank was still seventeenth. There have been many random statements made about the rank of Indiana educationally during the last thirty years. These figures are official. They were obtained from the reports of the Russell Sage Foundation which has made a scientific investigation of the efficiency of the system of education in all the States and Territories covering a period beginning with 1890.

A State-Wide Speaking Campaign to get people from Indiana interested in the educational situation in this State will be conducted for ten days beginning Sunday, November 7. Pastors will be asked to discuss the needs of our schools from their pulpits. It is the desire of the State-Wide Committee of men and women having this campaign in charge that a meeting shall be held in every school house in Indiana during the ten days. Plans are now being made to push this campaign as rapidly as possible. It will be put on not for the purpose of raising money or raising salaries but for the purpose of interesting the people in improving Indiana's educational efficiency for the sake of the boys and girls enrolled in the schools.

MOST people know that the musical enjoyment which they get out of a phonograph depends upon one thing. That thing is the phonograph's realism.

This picture shows the best way to test a phonograph's realism. Miss Betsy Lane Shepherd, the famous soprano, is standing beside the New Edison, and singing in direct comparison with the New Edison's RE-CREATION of her voice.

185 audiences, aggregating more than 100,000 people, have actually heard this comparison. None could distinguish between her living voice and its RE-CREATION.

This is one of the phenomenal records of realism. The New Edison holds all other records of realism, too, because no other phonograph attempts this comparison-test—or could sustain it.

The NEW EDISON

"The Phonograph with a Soul"

You try it this way

—the way we use in our store!—the Realism Test! Test the New Edison's Realism against the pleasure you know music can bring.

Tell us what kind of voice or instrument gives you truest musical enjoyment. Listen while we play your favorite on the New Edison. The Realism Test will enable you to gauge whether the New Edison's RE-CREATION gives you all of this enjoyment.

This is your test! It will help you determine what the New Edison's Realism means, in terms of your own musical enjoyment.

Ask for it! The "Personal Favorites" Realism Test.

Another thing to ask about is our Budget Plan. It disposes of the money question, in a way that will appeal to your common-sense and to your pocketbook.

In Memoriam

In loving remembrance of our dear wife and mother Clara Newkirk Gartin, who departed this life one year ago today, Oct. 12—1919. Sad and sudden was the call of her so dearly loved by all.

Her memory is as dear today as in the hour she passed away.

We have missed her coming footsteps, we have missed her every where.

Home has lost its greatest sunbeam since you left us Clara and mother dear.

It is sweet to breathe thy name; in life we loved you dearly, in death we do the same.

The moon and stars are shining on a lone and silent grave.

One whom we loved but could not save.

There are those who still linger near, who will come and scatter flowers on the grave.

Her daily toils are over.

Her work on earth is done.

Not dead but gone to meet the loved ones who have gone on before, and to wait for her loved ones one by one.

Only waited seven months and three days, for her grandson, Vernon L. Gartin, who departed this life May 15, 1920, age three years, four months and four days.

Quite Likely.

American women bathers with an inclination to embonpoint, it is stated, have taken to painting dimples on their knees. The report that a fashionable New Yorker who does not care for the water has created the necessary illusion by having a lobster painted on her top is probably premature. From Punch, London.

The Gasoline Situation in 1910 and Now

IN 1910 there were approximately 400 thousand cars in the United States.

To operate these cars there was available a gasoline production of 750 million gallons, or, approximately, 1875 gallons per car.

In 1919 there were more than 7 million cars and trucks operating in the United States.

To supply these engines there was available, according to Bureau of Mines Report, 3 billion, 957 million gallons of gasoline, or, approximately, 565 gallons per car.

In neither case has consideration been given to the demand of tractors, stationary gas engines, or the gasoline required by the arts and industries. Nor have we considered the large volume of this product shipped abroad annually.

The above figures are presented so that you may visualize one of the problems the petroleum industry has been called upon to solve in the past decade.

In 1910 the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) marketed about 20 percent of the gasoline output of the United States, or approximately 150 million gallons. In 1919 this Company sold about 640 million gallons of gasoline, or about 17 percent of the total for that year.

It has been the task of the 7 men who manage the affairs of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) for the 5124 stockholders, not one of whom owns as much as 10 percent of the total, to expand the organization not only to keep pace with, but to keep ahead of the extraordinary and persistent demand for gasoline.

How well they have succeeded is illustrated clearly by the fact that in the 10-year period above mentioned, the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has taken a leading part in increasing gasoline production 440 percent, while crude oil production increased only 94 percent.

DISCIPLES WILL HOLD CONVENTION

Christian Church Delegates Will Gather in St. Louis October 18-24 For International Meet

MEMBERSHIP IS 1,375,000

Special Trains Have Been Engaged to Carry Delegates From All Parts of Country to St. Louis.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 12.—Thousands of religious enthusiasts known as Disciples of Christ will gather in the St. Louis Coliseum October 18 to 24, for their International Convention. They are the largest religious gatherings held anywhere in America, and are the marvel of the religious world. The Disciples of Christ or Christian Church, is but a little over a hundred years old, being founded by the late Rev. Alexander Campbell, in Western Pennsylvania in 1809. The movement spread westward before the days of railroads, and waxed strong in the Ohio, Mississippi, and Missouri Valleys, because of its intense evangelism. Almost every community has citizens who recall "Campbellite" debates back in the fifties and sixties. The genius of the church is for the union of all Christians on the basis of the New Testament. The present membership is 1,375,000 with 10,000 churches and 7,000 preachers.

Besides the rapid growth in members, another marvel is its growth in missions, or benevolences. A Home Missionary Society was formed, to plant churches. Most of the present congregations were thus begun. In 1875 a little group of ardent advocates of foreign missions met in the basement of a church in Louisville, Kentucky, and formed a Foreign Missionary Society. A little later the women of the body organized a National missionary endeavor among the women. Benevolences and other ministries were likewise established from time to time, and adopted by the church at large. The Rev. Mr. Campbell early realized that education is the heart of religion, and that if churches were to be established, they must have leaders. He established Bethany College, at Bethany, West Virginia. Other colleges have come into existence from time to time, until there are more than twenty denominational schools throughout the country. The latest educational institution is just now being established in Los Angeles, known as the California School of Religion. The school is made possible through the gift of $400,000 by C. C. Chapman, well known organ grower of Fullerton, California, to which California members of the church have added a like sum. The property value of the colleges runs into the millions. Bacon College, the first educational institution west of the Allegheny mountains, established in 1798, and chartered by the United States Government, is a Disciple college, now called Transylvania, located at Lexington, Kentucky.

Besides the Rev. Mr. Campbell, two other outstanding preachers of their time were prominent in the establishment of this church. The Rev. Walter Scott, and the Rev. Barton W. Stone, who labored largely in Kentucky. Their work also shows in the history of Missouri, Indiana, and other States. But it was Mr. Campbell who possessed the genius for leadership, and the popular name of the body at the time was "Campbellite" because of his leadership. The impolite name was obnoxious to Mr. Campbell and his followers, and is so even to the present day. In some sections the church is known as Church of Christ, or Christian church, while elsewhere it is known as Disciples of Christ.

President Garfield was a member of this church, and was President of Hiram College, a Disciple institution located at Hiram, Ohio, near Cleveland. Champ Clark is an elder in the Disciple congregation at Bowling Green, Missouri, and was educated at Bethany College. It is not generally known that Mr. Clark preached frequently in his college days, and always carried a Bible in his saddle-bags.

Controversy with religious neighbors was the order of the early day of the Disciples. This has given way to internal dispute from time to time. One group objected to the use of instrumental music in public worship, and to the organization of missionary societies, and withdrew in 1889, taking about 50,000 members. The parent body grew faster after the defection than before. "Where the Bible speaks, we speak, and where the Bible is silent we are silent" was the motto adopted by Mr. Campbell. This motto has stuck to the denomination for all times, and is quoted liberally in the literature.

SOVIETS REPLY TO BRITISH.

(By United Press)

London, Oct. 11.—The Russian government returned non-committal notes to Lord Curzon, warning the British fleet that a Soviet submarine was seen in the Baltic Sea. The Soviet foreign minister said a Soviet representative was in London and will receive instructions regarding the situation.

And the Audience Smiled.

A well-known statistician was giving some statements about a certain industry at a public dinner. "These are not my figures, ladies and gentlemen," he said. "They are the figures of a man who knows what he is talking about."

FULL Automatic Starts and Stops Itself

Not Merely "Self Starting"

THE Matthews "Automatic Caretaker" requires no promptings from the human brain to the engine. Long before they are exhausted to the danger point the "Automatic Caretaker," of its own accord, automatically starts the engine, recharges the batteries, and is automatically stops recharging when the batteries are full. A "self-starting" plant depends on some one's memory. The "Automatic Caretaker" can be obtained with

MATTHEWS ELECTRIC LIGHT AND POWER PLANTS

When batteries are in danger of heating through overcharge, the "Automatic Caretaker" instantly starts the generator which takes ALL the load. If the drain is still too heavy, the batteries are automatically "cut in" again, and the generator. Any plant that does less than this is NOT Full Automatic and is out of date the day it is installed.

Matthews rating is based on generator capacity ALONE. Batteries being a reserve supply. Six sizes, $445 upwards. Ask the Matthews dealer for Demonstration. Write for Free Booklet "A". Full Automatic—starts and stops itself—not merely self-starting.

How We Care For Your Meat Cars

When you see a Swift Refrigerator Car going by in a train, it seems a simple thing that it should be carrying fresh meat up and down the country.

Like most of the packer activities which contribute to your welfare, you are so used to having this going on uninterruptedly, day in, day out, throughout the year, that you are likely to take it as a matter of course.

But it is not a matter of course. Every car you see going by means long hours of minute, scientific, painstaking care in preparation for what it is doing.

Every time a car comes in it is washed out thoroughly with scalding water. If any taint, any foreign matter, were present, this would get rid of it. Even the meat hooks are taken down from the racks and scalded with water and live steam.

When the car is thoroughly cleaned we put in 5,000 pounds of ice. But that is only preliminary. It only cools the car to the proper temperature. By the time the car is moved over to receive its load, this first ice is melted. More is then put in to keep the car cool.

Then the meat is hung on the sterilized hooks and the load of food is ready for its journey. It arrives as it leaves, clean, fresh, wholesome, appetizing; and your meat supply goes on unaffected by seasons or weather.

This is only a part of the service which Swift & Company furnishes, at a profit to itself so small—averaging a fraction of a cent per pound on all products over a period of years—that if the profit were handed on to the consumer, it would make a difference of less than a nickel a week in the meat bill of the average American family.

Swift & Company, U. S. A.
